

Photos supplied by The Association of Families of Flight PS752 Victims

IN MEMORIAM

The innocent lives lost on Flight PS752

Saba Saadat

Undergraduate student completing a Bachelor of Science majoring in biological sciences with a minor in psychology and conducted honours research.

Sara Saadat

2019 University of Alberta alumna with a Bachelor of Science majoring in psychology. Had just been accepted into the clinical psychology program at Alliant University in San Diego.

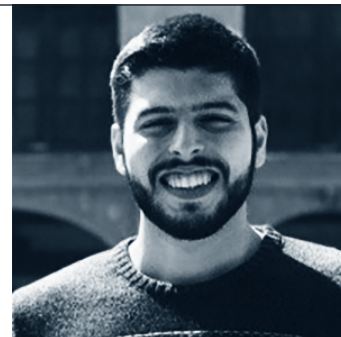

Shekoufeh Choupannejad

A renowned Edmonton gynaecologist who worked at the Northgate Medical Clinic known to help new Iranian-Canadians locate health-care options in the city. She was Sara and Saba's mother.

Mohammad Mahdi Elyasi

2017 University of Alberta alumnus with a Master of Engineering degree in fluid turbulence.

Amir Hossein Saeedinia

Doctor of Philosophy student within the department of mechanical engineering set to begin his studies in January of 2020. Worked on finite element modelling of the material behaviour of coatings.

Pouneh Gorji

Graduate student completing a Master of Science in the department of computing science.

Mojgan Daneshmand

Professor of electrical engineering who held the Tier II Canada Research Chair in radio frequency microsystems for communication and sensing. Member of the faculty of engineering's department of electrical and computer engineering.

Pedram Mousavi

Professor of mechanical engineering who was the Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada Industrial Research Chair in integrated sensors and antennas. Member of the faculty of engineering's department of mechanical engineering.

Daria Mousavi

Daughter of engineering professors Pedram Mousavi and Mojgan Daneshmand.

Elnaz Nabiyi

Doctor of Philosophy student within the department of accounting, operations and information systems at the University of Alberta School of Business.

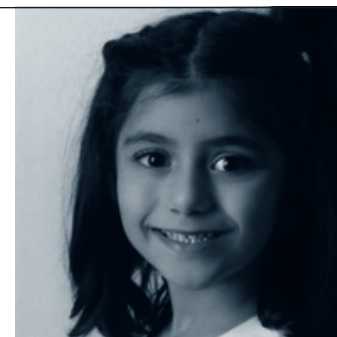

Nasim Rahmanifar

Graduate student pursuing a Master of Science within the department of mechanical engineering.

Arash Pourzarabi

Graduate student completing a Master of Science in the department of computing science.

Dorina Mousavi

Daughter of engineering professors Pedram Mousavi and Mojgan Daneshmand.

*Remembering the 176 lives,
including the 13 Edmontonians,
lost on January 8, 2020.*